

Accommodations

Accommodations are provided in our Dorm 5 and Longhouse facilities. Each room is heated. Each room includes two sets of single-size bunk beds. Rooming for this retreat is priced at double occupancy. Housing sections will be assigned to male attendees, female attendees, and married couples. Those attending individually will be housed with a roommate (requests are accepted). Those attending as a married couple will be housed together.

A commuter rate is available for anyone who prefers to commute daily or stay in their own cottage or RV ($46/night hookup fee applies for all RVs).

Make Connections And grow in Christ

Authentic Interaction.
Genuine Conversation.
Deep Discipleship.

As a young adult, we know these are the experiences that you seek. The Young Adult Retreat is designed to help individuals ages 18 - 35 grow in their relationship with Christ in an environment that is supportive and engaging; an atmosphere that recognizes the struggles they face and equips them to overcome those challenges with Godly wisdom.

Come hear from speakers who will address relevant topics, and share in powerful worship sessions. Enjoy times of connection and conversation with other young adults. Make memories with friends new and old as you navigate this exciting stage of life together. Grow in your own walk with Christ by connecting with Him in the beautiful setting of Mahaffey Camp.

Main Speaker: Pastor Matt Montgomery

Matt and his wife, Erin, have been serving the people of First Baptist Church in DuBois, PA for over 15 years. During that time, one of their greatest joys has been discipling teenagers and then walking with them through the early years of adulthood. Matt is passionate about helping people understand the Gospel and apply it to every aspect of life.
