

Crafting Retreat

Join us for a great retreat filled with making new friends and learning from other crafting enthusiasts. The retreat will allow plenty of time with an 8 ft table of individual space for you to create without interruption. The Bookstore is spacious with plenty of bright lighting.

Registration is limited so don't delay. Early registration by September 10 will receive a $5 discount. Meals are included in the retreat cost as indicated in the retreat schedule. Payment must accompany your registration.

This is a craft on your own retreat with no vendors or instructions. Come and use up your stash or start up a new hobby.

Mahaffey Camp & Conference Center will not be responsible for accidents or lost items.

Seating is provided based on first arrival. Sorry, no reserved seating requests will be honored; however, once you arrive you may reserve seats for your friends at your section of tables.

What to Bring

Projects you have put off, supplies for your projects, items for the swap table and extension cord if applicable.
If staying in the Dorm, please bring your own bedding [single bed], towels and toiletries.

Accommodations will be available in renovated Dorm 5 rooms for those who desire a place to sleep and shower. A confirmation letter will be sent to each registrant 10 days prior to the retreat prior to the retreat.

What do you do at a Crafting retreat?

Enjoy a fun time of preserving your family memories and photos, create cards, yarn projects, mixed media crafts, etc.

Exchange great ideas with fellow crafters

Take advantage of comfortable table seating [8 ft table space] with lots of work space to discover new skills

Get away and enjoy the time to complete some unfinished craft projects.

Early Registration

Please register as early as possible. We will limit our space so that there is plenty of room for table workspace. Our bookstore facility will permit adequate lighting and an 8 ft table area for you and your projects. You may want to bring an Ott light for fine detail work. Please bring your own long heavy duty extension cord and power strip. Please bring supplies for your projects.

While there will not be a vendor in attendance to the retreat, we will have a large swap table for those who are attending to share with other attendees. Your trash is another's treasure.

You are welcome to come and participate bringing craft projects such as card making rubber stamping, scrapbooking, painting or any other hand projects. It will be a great time of create 'till you drop inspirations.

This is a retreat that requires focused project time and is available for anyone to attend age 12 or older when accompanied by an adult.

Discount Registrations will be accepted until September 10. Beginning September 11 the full event fee applies.

Sorry, no refunds are issued once registered; however, you may transfer your registration to a friend. Plan to register early.
